INDEPENDENCE WEEK

REPORT

The Literary Club issued a circular on Dt-29.07-2022 to organize Dum Charade, Spell Bee and Essay Writing Competition on the occasion of 'Independence Week' for all B.Tech & MBA students. The club organised all the activities in ELCS Lab at 2.50 pm. Students were informed to prepare on all the terms related to Independence. Students showed their interest to participate in all the three activities conducted on different dates i.e. on 4th, 5th, and 6th August 2022.

The first activity Dum Charade was conducted in ELCS Lab at 2.50 pm. Total 30 students gathered at the venue and the activity started at 3.00 pm. The students from different branches participated in this activity very enthusiastically. The student coordinators started the event and gave a brief idea about the different rounds of the event. The event was judged by Dr Rajitha Nair. In the 1st round out of the total participants, 9 teams were formed and each team consists of 3 to 4 students. The participants were given clue of Patriotic Movies where the students enacted the name of the movies either Hindi or Telugu movies like Border, Kargil, 1942 A Love Story, Khadgam, Alluri Seetharama Raju, Tagore, Mangal Pandey, Shaheed, Maa Tujhe Salaam, Bhagat Singh. The same team members were given 40 seconds time to guess the movie. In 2nd round, the students were given some of the renowned Freedom Fighters personalities like Jhansi Rani Lakshmi Bai, Kamala Nehru, Lal Bal Pal, Subhash Chandra Bose. The participants who were selected for this round were given 50 seconds to guess the name of freedom fighter name. Finally, the judge selected three participant names who answered in less time and finalised the winners' name.

On 5th of August 2022, the second activity Spell Bee was conducted in ELCS Lab at 2.50 pm. Total 12 students gathered at the venue and participated in this activity very enthusiastically. In the 1st round students were given clue of all the Patriotic terms. The coordinator dictated some of the patriotic terms like sovereignty, valiant, non-alignment, martyr, colonialism Massacre, steadfast, suffrage, abolitionist.

The students were given a paper to write 10 such words. The faculty coordinator pronounced the words in both American and British pronunciation along with the meaning of the word. The participants those who scored more than 40% were selected for the next round. In this round each student was given a difficult word which the participant had to write on the board like subjugation, chauvinism, incarceration, manumission, immurement, emancipation. Finally, three students were selected as winners.

On 6th August 2022, the third activity Essay Writing was conducted in ELCS Lab at 2.50 pm. The topic for essay was "The Freedom Fighter you emulate....." and total 9 students participated in this activity. The students mentioned some of the freedom fighters like Alluri Sita Rama Raju, Jawaharlal Nehru, Bhagat Singh, Subhash Chandra Bose in their writings. They highlighted how freedom fighters of different states inspired and motivated others to fight injustice. They were the pillars behind the freedom movement. The writings were evaluated and scrutinised by the judges of English faculties Dr C Goverdhan and Dr Rajitha Nair. Finally, three students were selected as winners.

SAMVIDHAN DIWAS

REPORT

To commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India as Jan Bhagidari and to honour and acknowledge the contribution of Founding Fathers of the Constitution. This year the Constitution Day ‘Samvidhan Diwas’ i.e. on 26th November 2022, was being celebrated on the subject of “India- the Mother of democracy.”

The Literary Club of Geethanjali College organized events to spread awareness about the programme and to promote this event successfully which were conducted by AICTE. The Club requested everyone to participate in the following activities-

- a. Reading the Preamble (Online reading of Preamble to the Constitution in 22 Official Languages and English through readpreamble.nic.in)
- b. Online Quiz on the topic “India- the Mother of Democracy”- web portal: quiz.nic.in

The instructions were given to be followed by the faculty, staff and students of GCET. All were informed to Read the Preamble and to appear for the Quiz. A Google form was circulated to collect certificates of Constitutional Reading and Constitutional Quiz.

Google form link

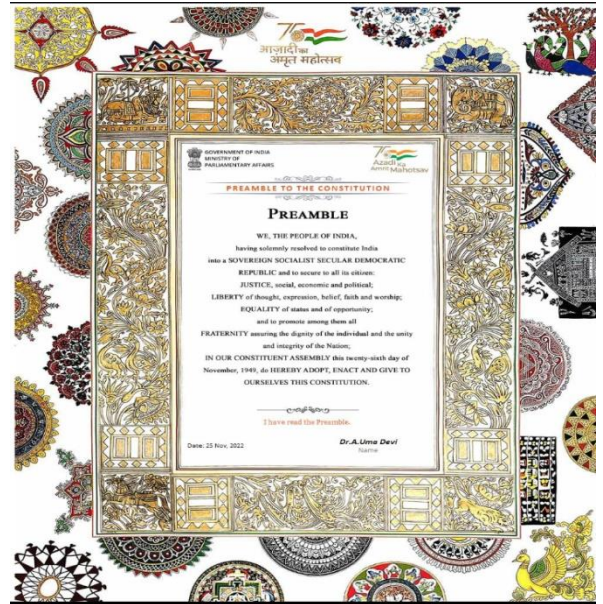

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfjR8ix6KtKXNDAtpKXQKz3scBQpMpANROuz5UiUxKGN8J_Ag/viewform?usp=sf_link

Around 46 responses were obtained from the participants. The participants uploaded the certificate of preamble reading and the quiz in the Google form. The programme was very well received and everyone lauded the initiation from the AICTE for inculcating the spirit of constitution and the contributions made by the founding fathers.

REPORT

The Literary Club issued a circular on 08.03.2023 to organize a Book Review Writing Competition and Paper Presentation Competition for all the students of GCET. For Book Review Writing competition, students were given two books to review. They can review any one of the books from 7 habits of Effective people and Rich Dad Poor Dad. Students showed their interest to participate in the activities and submitted their writings before 28th March 2023. Total 20 students from different branches participated in these activities very enthusiastically. The event was judged by Dr C Goverdhan and Mr T Nagaraju. The club organised the activities to develop their writing skills and presentation skills and motivated the students to participate further in such activities to develop the efficacy of their skills.

7 Habits of highly effective people

Stephen R. Covey's book, The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, continues to be a bestseller for the simple reason that it ignores trends and pop psychology and focuses on timeless principles of fairness, integrity, honesty, and human dignity.

One of the most compelling books ever written, The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, was empowered and inspired readers for over 25 years. It's value played a part in the transformation of millions of lives across all age groups and professions.

No matter how competent a person is, they will not have sustained and lasting success unless they can effectively lead themselves, influence, engage and collaborate with others and continuously improve and renew their capabilities. These elements are at the heart of personal, team, and organizational effectiveness.

The main thing I liked in this book is it will help you move from a state of dependence, to independence and finally to interdependence. I liked the seven habits i.e.:

- 1) Be proactive
- 2) Begin with the end in mind
- 3) Put first things first
- 4) Think win

5. Seek to understand first, before making yourself understood

6. Learn to synergize

7. Sharpen the saw

This 7 Habits of Highly Effective People book summary will look at each of these habits and show you how to put them into action to become more successful in whatever you want to achieve.

On the "dislike" side is the fact that the chapters are each very long. I would have liked shorter chapters better, each one focused on a certain aspect of a habit. This would have made readings through the whole book easier for me.

At some point in the first quarter of the book, the author mentions how his religious beliefs help him with the habits. As a convinced atheist, I was afraid that the book would new turn into a recruiting tent, which luckily was not the case.

This chapter is important because it teaches you how to realign your goals so that you stay focused on the right things.

Stephen Covey said that "habit" is a combination of three things that is knowledge, skill, and willingness.

the keypoints that I have observed in books are :-

- Be Proactive
 - * act's don't be acted upon
 - * responsibility - response - ability - we can choose how to respond to a situation
 - * control your proactively
 - * work on what is what you are, not on what you have.
 - * if you made a mistake, admit it and correct it
- Begin with the end in mind
 - * create a personal mission statement defining your most important principles
 - * visualize what you want to achieve
- Put first things first
 - * do the important, not the urgent, in order to keep the important from getting urgent.
 - * say "no" to things that are unimportant according to your mission statement
 - * plan weekly and daily to make sure you do the right things.

Book Review

Book name: Rich Dad Poor Dad.

Rich dad poor dad is the book written by Robert T. Kiyosaki. It was published in the year 1997. Robert is one of the best writers of books on financial literacy.

The book is about how Robert was able to gain the knowledge of financial literacy from his rich dad. It's a debut book by Robert and also best seller on finance.

The Book says - "What the rich teach their kids about money, that the poor and middle class do not!"

The book starts with the Roberts childhood, where Robert and his friend Mike were not invited by their rich friends to their beach house as Robert and Mike were poor. So, they started thinking - how to (be) get rich and how to make money. They, asked their dads same question. Here Robert's dad was a recognized professor and well educated. Mike's dad was a local entrepreneur who made other people work for him.

In this book Robert considered his dad as poor dad because though he is educated, he spent money on liabilities. And on the other hand he considered Mike's dad as rich dad as he know how to make money, work for him.

Having two dads offered Robert the choice of contrasting points of view. Like poor dad says "play safe, Don't take risk" while the rich dad says "Learn to manage risk". Robert decided to listen and learn from rich dad.

I thought ~~the~~ this book would be controversy between rich and poor, but people took it in a positive way, to learn about finance. This book make us to think about money differently.

This book has 9 chapters and each chapter is about different aspects of money, how it works. I liked "The rich don't work for money", where rich dad explains Robert how rich make money work for them. This book has lots of things like what is financial literacy?, history of taxes, what are Assets and liabilities, how to invest money?.

This book is full of quotes to have a positive mind which helps us to think different. Some of them are

- The difference between being poor and being broken is broken is temporary, poor is eternal.

- I can't afford it cause sadness

 - How can I afford it? - open up possibilities.

This book is like a treasure for those who want to learn financial education. It give's simple explanation about finance, how to make and invest money.

Reading Rich dad, poor dad is a great investment of time. This book is a starting point for anyone who is looking to gain control on their financial success.

It's a great book to read and I advise everyone to read this book and decide whether to work for money or to make money work for them.

Book Review

Rich Dad Poor Dad.

The Book "Rich Dad and Poor Dad" is written by Robert Kiyosaki. It came out in 1997. This book is published by Warner Books.

In this the author is telling his story when he was young. His father was a teacher. He tells that he had two fathers, his father and his friend's father. His father ^{was} poor and struggling for money, his friend's father was well settled even though he didn't study well. He referred to his father as "poor dad" and his friend's father as "rich dad".

This story is all about how how rich dad taught him about money, that how he can achieve financial freedom by building passive income instead of doing a regular hardwork which is done by most of them.

Rich Dad Poor Dad contains a total of 10 chapters plus the introduction but much of the book is focused on the first six chapters.

The first chapter tells about how Rich Don't work for money. The truth is that majority of rich people do work very hard, but they go about it differently than most people do. Kiyosaki also notes that having a regular job is just a short term solution to the long-term problem of creating wealth and financial freedom.

The second chapter explains the difference between assets and liabilities. An asset is something that has value, that produces income or appreciates and has a market where the asset can easily be bought and sold. Conversely, liabilities take money out of your pocket because of costs associated with them.

In the third chapter is all about two key messages. First pay off your debts and start investing in income producing assets as soon as possible. The next is to stay financially healthy by spending your time and investing as much of your money as possible in assets.

The fourth chapter is all about the history of taxes and the power of corporations. It is important to keep in mind that Kiyosaki wrote Rich Dad as a motivational book, not to provide expert financial or tax advice. It mainly consists of "Financial IQ": Accounting, Investment Strategy, Market Law, and Law.

The fifth chapter is about the rich invest money. It explains about two types of investors:

1. → Investment Packages and 2. → Professional investors. The professional investors have three things in common:
- Identify opportunities that other people have not found.
 - Raise funds for investment.
 - Work with other intelligent people.

The sixth chapter is about work to learn - don't work for money. The poor dad was intelligent and well educated and working for money because job security meant everything.

REPORT

As Part of the celebrations of Telangana Rashtra Avatarana Dashabdi Utsavalu, a circular was issued on 06.06.2023 wherein it was stated that the Literary Club would be conducting an Essay Writing and Poster Making Competition on several schemes and initiatives of Telangana Government. Till the last date of the registrations, that is, 10.06.2023, eight participants from different branches registered for Essay Competition, whereas six (6) registrations were received for Poster Making Competition. The Essay Competition was conducted on Monday, 12.06.2023 from 2:40 to 3:20 pm in ELCS lab of Block – II and the Poster Making Competition was conducted on Tuesday, 20.06.2023 from 2 pm onwards in Open Auditorium of Block – II. Both the events were supervised by the Literary Club Coordinator Dr. Pramodini Patnaik and Faculty Coordinators Dr. C. Goverdhan and Mr. T. Nagaraju. Students across branches showed up and actively participated in both the events. The club successfully organized the events for the inculcation and development of Writing as well as the Presentation Skills in the students. The club further motivated and encouraged students to actively participate in the future events for their own personality development.

Report on Elocution Competition

30-06-2023

The National Education Policy 2020 places great emphasis on reading as a fundamental skill for Foundational Literacy and Numeracy (FLN). With this in mind, the GCET Literary Club has taken the initiative to conduct an Elocution Competition in honor of the late Sri Panicker, who is considered the father of the Library Movement in Kerala. It is worth mentioning that the government of Kerala celebrates 19th June as the 'Day of Reading'. The competition, titled "Reading is a Core Skill to Win the World of Competition," is scheduled to take place on 19th June 2023.

To ensure the successful organization of the event, the club issued a circular on 12th June 2023 inviting students to participate in the elocution competition. We received an overwhelming response, with a total of 10 registrations from enthusiastic students. On 19th June 2023, the competition was held at the ELCS Lab at 2:30 pm, and we were delighted to see 6 students actively participating. The judges for the event were Dr. C. Goverdhan Reddy, Dr. A. Shobha Rani, and Dr. Pramodini Patnaik. All the students showcased remarkable articulation skills as they highlighted the importance of reading in conquering the competitive world.

This event served as a catalyst, highlighting the significance of cultivating reading habits among the students, especially in an era dominated by digital advancements where such habits are gradually diminishing.

REPORT

To celebrate the World Yoga Day (21st June), the Literary Club issued a circular on 12.06.2023 for organizing a Poster Presentation event aiming to promote awareness about the numerous benefits of Yoga and its relevance in today's fast-paced world. The participants were encouraged to come up with their own topics stressing the importance of Yoga in different fields, particularly engineering and technology. Upon the last date of registrations, that is, till 10 am of 21.06.2023, six (6) students from different branches registered for the event. The event was organized in the ELCS lab of Block – II on 21st of June 2023, wherein the participants displayed their posters in front of a large gathering of students. Dr. C. Goverdhan and Mr. T. Nagaraju served as the jury members of the event. The objective of the event was both to sensitize about the benefits of Yoga in our daily lives as well as to inculcate good presentation skills in the students. Upon the successful completion of the event it was emphasized that whenever such events are organized by the club, students should actively participate for their own betterment.

This event aims to promote awareness about the numerous benefits of Yoga and its relevance in today's fast-paced world. The poster presentation event intends to provide a platform for B Tech and MBA students to showcase their creativity and knowledge about yoga. The objective is to foster a deeper understanding of yoga practices, their impact on physical and mental well-being, and their integration with technology or engineering concepts.

The posters will be displayed in ELCS Lab

Date: 21.06.2023

Time: 2.00 pm

Topics:

Participants are encouraged to choose topics related to yoga and its connection to the field of engineering and technology. Some suggested areas of focus include:

- Role of Yoga in fostering innovation and creativity in Engineering
- The Health Benefits of Yoga: Exploring the Physical and Mental Benefits of Yoga Practices.
- Yoga for Stress Management: Techniques to Reduce Stress and Promote Well-being.
- Yoga and Women's Health: Understanding the Benefits of Yoga for Women's Well-being.

Participation Guidelines:

Posters should be visually appealing and include relevant content, images, and diagrams in chart papers. Each participant or team can submit one poster presentation to the faculty co-ordinator Dr P Pramodini/ Dr T Sridevi by 10 am on 21.06.2023.
