

1.5 Consistency of PEOs with the mission (15)

Table No. 1.5 Mission – PEOs matrix

Mission PEO	Mission 1 To offer high quality Masters in Business Administration imparting management and business principles, driven by honesty, integrity, transparency, and ethics preparing students for professional career.	Mission 2 Engaging students through critical thinking, developing interpersonal skills, through cooperation and collaboration, inculcating an entrepreneurial mind set to contribute towards societal development.
PEO1: To prepare students to lead a successful career in industry or pursue higher studies or become an entrepreneur and be a lifelong learner	Correlation level 2 The Mission statement emphasizes on quality education imparted through innovative curriculum, learner centred pedagogies inculcating critical business principles laid on the foundation of honesty, integrity, transparency and ethics which facilitate students for their professional development	Correlation level 2 The Mission statement encompasses development of an entrepreneurial mind-set, oriented towards societal development, involving students to think critically, through collaborative and corroborative activities, leading to demonstration of interpersonal skills.
PEO2: To train students so as to enable them to offer commercially feasible and socially acceptable business solutions contributing towards societal development.	Correlation level 3 Fundamentally, all business practices require demonstration of honesty, integrity, transparency, and ethics, which when nurtured; eventually lead towards professional development of students.	Correlation level 3 Business Management requires one to think creatively and innovatively, use analytical and logical reasoning skills to solve various problems in order to provide feasible and acceptable solutions which facilitate societal development.
PEO3: To develop strong leadership and interpersonal skills demonstrating impeccable honesty, integrity and professional ethics with a deep-rooted commitment for societal development.	Correlation level 3 Honesty, integrity, transparency, ethics, and a deep-rooted commitment facilitate development of leadership skills in students paving way for societal development.	Correlation level 3 Development of a sustainable entrepreneurial outlook leading to societal development requires students to think critically, work collaboratively and cooperatively with mutual respect